Four Home Runs Crush Dodgers 9-0

Brooklyn Handed Worst 7th Game Rout Since 1934

BROOKLYN, N.Y. — The New York Yankees crushed the Brooklyn Dodgers 9-0 under a barrage of four home runs today to win the World Series behind the brilliant three hit pitching of young Johnny Kucks.

It was the most humiliating seventh game defeat in series competition since 1934 when the Cardinals routed the Tigers, 11-0.

Yogi Berra touched off the Yankee bombardment with a pair of two run homers off big Don Newcombe, who failed the Dodgers again.

ELSTON HOWARD blasted another homer off Newcombe in the fourth and Bill Skowron put the icing on the Yankee victory cake with a grand slammer off Roger Craig, the third Dodger pitcher, in the seventh.

Thus the Yankees won their seventh series flag in the past 10 years and gave manager Casey Stengel his sixth series triumph in seven tries.

Kucks, an 18-game winner during the regular season, followed in the footsteps of Don "perfect game" Larsen and Bullet Bob Turley as his sinker ball had the Dodgers baffled all day.

KUCKS DIDN'T quite measure up to the masterpiece which Larsen unfurled on Monday when he set down 27 Dodgers in a row for the first perfect game in series history, but his pitching was more than good enough behind that devastating Yankee attack which set all kinds of series home run records.

Only six Dodger batters reached base all day—three on walks and three on hits—all singles—and only one got as far as second.

THE 23-YEAR-OLD Kucks was in trouble only once, in the very first inning. He walked Pee Wee Reese with one out and then Duke Snider rifled a single to center, Reese stopping at second.

But Kucks, whose sinker had the Dodgers hitting into the ground most of the time, served a double-play ball to Jackie Robinson, hero of Tuesday's 1-0 Dodger triumph.

That was the closest the Dodgers were to come to scoring off this six foot, three right hander, who in two previous appearances in relief in this series had been hit hard.

Sickle Slayer's Hearing Set

LOS ANGELES — A preliminary hearing will be held next Wednesday for a partially paralyzed suspect accused of the sickle slaying of Mrs. Mary Morris, 55, wealthy operator of a Highland Park rest home.

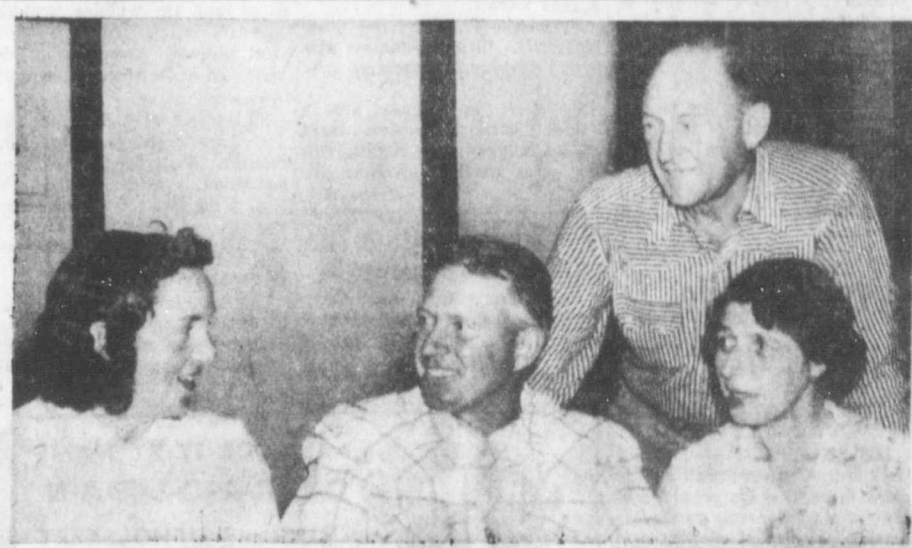

Gabriel Di Bella, 48-year-old unemployed machinist, was shackled to a wheelchair when he appeared for arraignment on the murder charge in Municipal Court.

Mrs. Morris was hacked to death last Thursday behind one of the units of her rest home. Di Bella gulped a handful of sleeping pills when officers found him hiding in the bushes near the body.

News Conference

WASHINGTON — President Eisenhower will hold a news conference at 10:30 a.m. Thursday, the White House announced.

Six Injured In Explosion Set by Gas

Omaha's Rabbi Block Seriously Burned In Iowa Mishap

GLENWOOD, Iowa, — An explosion shattered the interior of a two-story packing plant early today, injuring at least six men, including a rabbi.

The blast, which jarred the area for miles around, touched off a small fire in the Roth Packing Co. plant but it was quickly extinguished.

One of the injured was Rabbi Isaac Block, Omaha, who suffered serious second degree burns and was hospitalized at nearby Council Bluffs.

The plant devotes a sizeable part of its production to Kosher meat and Rabbi Block apparently was assigned to the plant today.

Three other men were hospitalized. The explosion apparently was touched off by a gas leak, officials said.

Charity Screen Group Holds First Meeting

Legal powers and probable scope of activities of the newly appointed Palm Springs Social Service Commission were discussed at the initial meeting of the Commission late yesterday.

City Manager R. W. Peterson, on whose call the five-member body met at City Hall, said the basic purpose of the ordinance creating the so-called "charity screening" committee was not to interfere with the activities of worthy established charities, but to weed out fly-by-night promotions under guise of charity which take a major portion of the donated funds outside the "Village" or go into the pockets of the promoters.

HE SAID THE ordinance — which requires proposed drives to file pertinent data as to disposition of funds collected 30 days before the starting date, and to obtain written approval or disapproval of the commission — technically applies to all organizations except churches, missionary or evangelist groups. But he added the commission has the power to waive investigation of established fund campaigns.

He described the commission's function as one of educating the people of Palm Springs to ask that solicitors first display the commission's written approval before contributing.

"This is frankly a snare type ordinance," added City Attorney Jerry Bunker, "designed not to harass worthy charities but to discourage suspect ones."

He said the commission's findings would become a legal matter of public record and therefore open to publication.

FIRST ACTION of the commission was a tentative decision to issue to Village business establishment's intention to require commission approval before listening to any fund appeals. It was stressed, however, that the commission's approval was not to be construed as an endorsement.

Members of the commission are: John Haskell, head of John Haskell and Company; Joe Jackson, Western Director Company; Mrs. Glenn Watson; C. O. Sodergren, owner of Bisonte Lodge; and Mac Hutchens, executive editor of The Desert Sun.

Juveniles' Plan For Desert Spa Nipped by Police

HOLLYWOOD — Plans for a juvenile "Utopia" on the Mojave Desert with no interference from parents or school officials—were nipped in the bud today with arrest of seven juveniles, police reported.

Three of the youngsters were spotted in a truck loaded with sand, cement, lumber and tools and stopped by officers who said the suspects revealed plans for building a desert resort with stolen materials.

Police said the teenagers had stolen approximately $8,000 worth of building materials and other items since April.

Chiang Urges Revolt Against Chinese Reds

TAIPEI, Formosa, — Generalissimo Chiang Kai-Shek called upon mainland Chinese today to overthrow the Peiping Communist government — almost the last hope of the men who fled to Formosa on Dec. 7, 1949.

Political and military observers agreed that a revolution against the Chinese Reds would signal a counterattack by the powerful Nationalist armies to regain the mainland. But there was no estimate when and if it would occur.

An air of semi-permanency has settled upon Formosa in the meantime. The Nationalists are determined to return to China but the people have been told they must wait the right moment — a moment that now seems far away.

12 Days in His Wedding Night Togs Too Much

PATERSON, N.J. — Mrs. Joyce Kulp, who testified her bridegroom climbed into bed on their wedding night clad in sweat-pants and sweat socks, won a preliminary divorce decree Tuesday.

Mrs. Kulp said that 12 days after her marriage to Robert T. Kulp, Dec. 13, 1952, he still had not changed his clothes.

Realtors Plan First Breakfast Of Fall Thursday

First monthly breakfast meeting of the fall season will be held by the Palm Springs Real Estate Board at 8 a.m. Thursday, at the Ranch Club, with a capacity crowd expected to attend.

In announcing the meeting, Theresa Press, president, said that this "will be the greatest year in Palm Springs real estate history," not only in real estate transactions but "we believe that great progress will be made through the Real Estate Board's participation in community activity and planning."

"To be of greater help to the community in which they operate by aiding in its planning, development and general progress, is the object of real estate boards through out the state," the president said, and the "breakfast meetings, held on the second Thursday of each month, will emphasize this studied movement of the local board to gain knowledge and broaden its scope of activity in the community."

Speakers at the local sessions will cover the many phases of community growth, with the speakers Thursday to be George Pittenger and Al Stillwell of Riverside, who were instrumental in organizing the Multiple Listing Service, there which has proven so successful. In charge of arranging the program was Al Harms of the Land Title Co. of Riverside.

All members, escrow officers, contractors and title company representatives are invited to the meetings.

Gunmen Peril Italian Students

MILAN, Italy — Two apparently crazed gunmen invaded a school today, threatened to massacre the pupils, and fired through windows at police who surrounded the buildings.

Rio police laid siege to the school but could not shoot back for fear of hitting children and teachers.

A federal police spokesman said scores of students and "a few women teachers" were trapped in the school.

2000 Chinese Stone Police In Camp Riot

HONG KONG, — Two thousand Chinese refugees fought police with bottles and stones today in a resettlement camp riot that started as a quarrel between pro-Nationalist and pro-Communist Chinese.

Reports from the battle scene said three persons were killed and two injured when a fire engine ran into the crowd after the driver was stoned. A Chinese resettlement officer, a British police superintendent and at least five other persons were injured in the riot.

Police broke up the clash by firing tear gas bombs. It was Hong Kong's first political demonstration since 1952.

An official statement said the rioting at the Lichenguk Village resettlement area, near the city of Kowloon across the bay from Hong Kong proper broke out following a "dispute over some flags." He did not say what the dispute was about.

But Chinese reports said the clashes began when the Communists tried to tear down ceremonial arches put up by the Nationalists to celebrate today's "Double Tenth" anniversary — the 45th anniversary of the founding of the national government by Dr. Sun Yat-sen.

Police Lieutenant Exam Set Friday

City Manager Robert W. Peterson said today that examinations for police lieutenant will be held Friday, Oct. 12, at the city offices. The written examination will be taken by all seven police sergeants and will be followed in one week by oral examination.

Oral examinations will be given by outside police administrators.

Britain, France Cool on Egypt's Compromise Plan

UNITED NATIONS, N. Y. — Egypt pressed today for a negotiated solution to the Suez dispute "consistent with Egyptian sovereignty" over the canal, but there were no signs that Egypt or Britain and France were ready to compromise.

United Nations Secretary General Dag Hammarskjöld was using his own brand of quiet diplomacy in an effort to find a solution through secret talks while India's V. K. Krishna Menon worked behind the scenes with a yet unannounced "compromise plan."

Hammarskjöld conferred Tuesday night with the foreign ministers of Britain, France and Egypt and called them in for another private talk this afternoon as "the parties most directly concerned" in the Suez dispute.

Secretary of State John Foster Dulles was understood to have disqualified himself as a "directly concerned" party entitled to participate in the secret talks. As a result, Soviet Foreign Minister Dmitri Shepilov was not invited either.

The Security Council itself was in recess until 3:30 p.m. Thursday to allow diplomats 48 hours in which to hold private meetings.

Hammarskjöld's diplomatic hand obviously was playing a major role during the 48 hour period.

City Employers Expected to Heavily Endorse Retirement System Oct. 23

Palm Springs city employees will hold an election on Oct. 23 to determine whether they want a retirement system, and indications are that they will approve the plan by a landslide vote.

Three separate elections will be held the same day, one for the fire department, one police, and the other for miscellaneous employees. The plan must pass by a majority vote in each. A rejection by one group does not mean that the others cannot get the plan.

A staff meeting was held yesterday by the administrative officers and department heads of the city to discuss the program and make plans for an employee education program.

On Oct. 16 and 17, meetings will be held for employees to discuss the program with State Employment Service personnel.

AFTER THE ELECTION results are tabulated, it will be necessary for the city council to pass a city ordinance establishing the retirement program, which is intended to supplement the social security benefits.

In effect, the plan is an enforced savings program, and if an employee who has been in city employment resigns, he will receive all the money he has put into the plan, plus interest, but does not receive any of the city's contribution.

It is estimated the cost of the program to the city for the more than 150 employees will be approximately $120,000 a year, and according to City Manager Robert W. Peterson, this will increase the tax rate by five cents. This amount is taking into consideration other income, including the Use Tax.

THE AMOUNT which must be paid by the employees runs from seven to 16 per cent of salaries for police and fire personnel, and from five to nine per cent for other employees. The amount is figured on the age of the person when he entered employment and his present age.

In an effort to keep from reducing the employees' take-home-pay, the council on enacting the retirement program, will also give employees a two-step raise, which will bring the pay scale of local employees up to standard and allow approximately the same take-home pay.

Retirement age for employees under the program is 55 for policemen and firemen, and 60 for other employees. In order to get full benefit of the program, police and fire employees must have 20 years of service, and miscellaneous employees 35 years. The compulsory age for retirement for policemen and firemen is 65 and for miscellaneous employees is 70 years.

Ike Accuses Stevenson Of Irresponsible Criticism

PITTSBURGH (AP)—President Eisenhower charged Adlai E. Stevenson Tuesday night with political irresponsibility in implying the Republican administration cares nothing for the "little fellow."

In a major speech to an enthusiastic crowd of 15,000 at Hunt Armory, Mr. Eisenhower declared the Democratic orators have "concealed or twisted" the facts.

"Those political orators promise bigger government spending on every front—lower taxes for every citizen—all wrapped up in the bright package of a balanced budget," the President said at a GOP rally which climaxed a late afternoon and evening of orations in the traditionally Democratic steel center.

A capacity crowd of 11,000 jammed into the armory and another 4,000 packed streets and alleys outside to hear Mr. Eisenhower's 25-minute nationwide radio-television talk over an NBC hook-up.

SEATTLE, Wash. (AP)—Adlai E. Stevenson squared off today for a person-to-person battle with President Eisenhower by striking the Republican incumbent squarely in the middle of his pet project—atoms for peace.

With every speech in the Northwest, Stevenson directed his oratorical jabs more directly at the President himself. It became increasingly evident that this would be his strategy as he headed down the Pacific Coast for California.

Stevenson was scheduled to leave Seattle by plane this afternoon for Portland, Ore. He will speak there tonight both in his own behalf and for incumbent Wayne Morse, who is fighting former Interior Secretary Douglas McKay for a Senate seat.

In his Seattle speech Tuesday night, Stevenson first sailed into Mr. Eisenhower on political grounds. He said the Chief Executive had stepped up his campaign because his "worried Republican managers" had told him "a part-time president is all right, but cannot afford a part-time candidate."

EN ROUTE WITH NIXON (AP)—Vice President Richard M. Nixon said today small business will fare better under four more years of the Eisenhower administration than it would under the Democrats.

Nixon barnstormed four cities in his native California in the second day of a 10,000-mile flying campaign tour.

He replied to Democratic charges that the Republicans favor big business over small enterprises. "It should be the responsibility of government to see to it that small business does not suffer in the hands of either big business or big government," Nixon said.

Nixon, in a speech prepared for a small business procurement conference in Oakland, said the Eisenhower administration has taken "positive steps which certainly refute any claim that we are not interested in the problems of the small business man."

SYRACUSE, N.Y. (AP)—Sen. Estes Kefauver charged today that President Eisenhower's "advisers" accepted a $5,000 check from the same Texas oil man whose rejected $2,500 campaign gift later sparked the Senate lobbying investigation.

In a speech prepared for delivery at a Press Club luncheon here, the Democratic vice presidential nominee cited the incident as a "new example of influence" to support "corruption" charges against the Eisenhower administration. He said he hopes the Senate's Committee on Lobbying will investigate.

Bets $5000 He Can Predict Exact Vote Totals

LOS ANGELES (AP)—Mentalist Jack Swimmer has posted a $5,000 check to back up his prediction of the exact popular vote in the November presidential election.

The confident mentalist, a member of the International Guild of Prestidigitators, Tuesday handed a chest containing his prediction to Burton W. Chace, chairman of the Board of Supervisors, along with the check.

"Open the chest one week after the election," Swimmer instructed. "If I am wrong by so much as a single vote, the board may give $1,500 to any accredited charity. I'll select a charity to receive the remaining $3,500."

Lions Official To Speak Here

Trailer Rally Report Scheduled Thursday

Veterans Agency Tells 177,000 How To Win Friends

WASHINGTON (AP)—The Veterans Administration has issued a training guide to help its 177,000 employees do a better job of meeting the public face-to-face, by telephone or by letter.

Some of the tips it offers: Face-to-face: "Recognize a visitor promptly. If you can't avoid a delay, explain it right away. Be a good listener."

By telephone: "Greet the caller pleasantly. Give information willingly. Hang up the receiver gently."

By letter: "Don't repeat what is said in a letter you receive. Don't try to impress your reader with big words and long involved sentences."

Freeze Strikes Wide Section Of the Midwest

By UNITED PRESS

Freezing temperatures covered a wide section of the Midwest early today, but general warming was occurring behind the cool air mass that was blanketing the eastern portion of the nation.

Meanwhile, the U.S. Weather Bureau said a severe drought was prevailing over the central and southwestern portions of the nation, "intensified by continued mostly dry sunny weather and above-normal warmth."

Clear skies aided the mercury in dropping to near or below the freezing mark over most of Minnesota, Wisconsin, Michigan and the northern portions of Illinois and Indiana. Outside the freezing temperature zone, readings in the area covered by the cool Canadian air were generally in the 40s.

All parents of high school students are urged to attend the meeting. Basic purpose of the organization is to more closely integrate the interests of the school, students and parents.

Surgeon Raps Blue Shield Plan And AMA's Code of Medical Ethics

SAN FRANCISCO (AP)—An official of the American College of Surgeons believes Emily Post could have written a "much better" code of medical ethics than the American Medical Association.

This observation came from Dr. Paul R. Hawley of Chicago, outspoken director of the college, in the course of talks to two groups attending the 42nd annual congress of the ACS.

At the same time, Hawley also attacked the "questionable activities" of Blue Shield plans throughout the nation and criticized "scalpel-wielding" general practitioners.

DR. THOMAS O. MURPHY of the University of Minnesota medical school told the American College of Surgeons that one of the most common operations for arteriosclerosis may not be as effective as thought.

Murphy said he and other researchers at Minnesota experimented on rabbits to study the sympathetomy operation, in which surgeons cut the sympathetic nerves running into the legs.

Murphy said studies of rabbits who were operated on showed an increase in atherosclerosis not only on the lumbar aorta but also in the smaller vessels of the pelvis and thigh.

YALE UNIVERSITY surgeons described experiments using a substance which promises help in treating blood clotting diseases.

Dr. Michael Hume, speaking to the American College of Surgeons, said the substance, plasmin, is an enzyme isolated from human blood. It attacks and destroys blood clots by eating away at the web-like network, called fibrin, which holds a blood clot together.

Hawley charged that the AMA code is like the traditional Mother Hubbard dress.

"It covered everything, but touched upon very few points," he said. "It overlooked the most important person in the medical practice—the patient."

THE CODE, he said, is "largely a code of etiquette among physicians, which Emily Post could have written much better."

Hawley said Blue Shield plans, which cover 37 million Americans in 42 states, Puerto Rico and Hawaii, have failed to provide a fair and justifiable solution to health insurance problems.

He claimed that the American Medical Association long opposed Blue Shield plans, but accepted them at last only to "stop the clamor" for socialized medicine. "However," he said, "the American Medical Association made certain that the primary purpose of Blue Shield would be protection of the medical profession against socialization, rather than the protection of the public against medical expense."

Alaska Going Democratic in General Election

JUNEAU, Alaska (AP)—Alaska's "barometer" general election showed signs of fair weather for Democratic candidates as the choice of voters to bolster the territory's bid for statehood.

Alaskans balloted Tuesday for two token U.S. senators and one representative under an Alaska-Tennessee plan which would send their choices to Washington to lobby for statehood.

Democrats were leading in all three races with 74 out of the territory's 271 precincts reported. Still uncounted were most of the votes in the populous Anchorage area. There had been no reports from the Fourth Division which is headquartered at Nome.

GI Insurance Dividends Up

WASHINGTON (AP)—The Veterans Administration announced today that dividends to be paid next year to veterans holding World War II government insurance will be about 13 per cent higher than those paid this year.

The increase will go to some five million veterans covered by both term and permanent policies of National Service Life Insurance, the VA said.

It also announced payment next year of the first dividend in 25 years to veterans holding five-year term U.S. Government Life Insurance, which originated in World War I.

Off-Street Parking Law Voted Down by County Supervisors, 3-2

By a three to two vote the county board of supervisors turned down adoption of the proposed off-street parking ordinance which action was delayed last week, as it has been several times before.

Supervisors William Jones, Fred McCall and Roman Warren who indicated last week they believed the off-street parking requirements to be "too regulatory" voted against adoption of the ordinance.

Supervisor George Berkey who made the motion for adoption declared, "The ordinance would create no hardship for anyone as it contains a provision whereby the planning commission could modify the off-street parking requirements in instances where they would not be practical." His motion was seconded by Supervisor Paul Anderson.

In addition to off-street parking provisions, the ordinance would have required an M-3 permit for establishment of a trailer park in a W-2 zone, and would have required loading space for new or enlarged buildings of certain types.

A Mailman's Travels

OREM, Utah (AP)—M. Verne Thurber, marking his 30th year as a rural carrier on Route No. 2, estimated the job he began in Model T Ford has carried him 280,000 miles. Thurber, who marked his anniversary by working as usual, said he hadn't had an accident since he began his route in August, 1926.

Scout Executive Addresses Club

John G. Triplett, regional Scout executive for Region 12 which comprises the Southwestern States and Hawaii, addressed the Palm Springs Kiwanis Club at its meeting Tuesday noon at the Palm Springs Biltmore, and the Rotary Club at its luncheon meeting, also at the Biltmore.

Triplett is here as a guest of Lloyd Simon. Another speaker at the Rotary meeting was State Sen. Nelson S. Dilworth, who discussed the November 6 ballot in a non-partisan talk. Oliver B. Jaynes was program chairman.

Lutherans Ease Divorce Stand

BLUEISLAND, Ill. (AP)—The American Lutheran Church has modified its stand on divorce to allow the remarriage of the innocent party and also the guilty party provided there is repentance. The modification was announced Monday in a paper presented to some 300 delegates at the church's 14th biennial convention here. The statement urged Lutheran pastors to "carefully" decide which person is the innocent party in a divorce action and ascertain when the guilty party "has seen and repented before God of his sins."

GREATEST GIVEAWAY PROGRAM (From The Washington Post)

The root of the (farm) problem, as Mr. Stevenson sees it, is the inability of people at home and abroad to buy the food that they need and that American farmers can raise. "Abundance," he said, "is not a blight but a blessing."

To make it so, he would have the Government "vastly expand" the school lunch program, distribute food to needy families through a food stamp program, and ship surpluses abroad through voluntary relief agencies and a world food bank.

He seems to be saying to farmers that they will be free to produce as much as they care to at high fixed prices and that the Government will buy up the surpluses and give them away.

No estimate of the cost of such a program was offered, though it certainly would be enormous. Unless the plan provides for rigid controls, which Mr. Stevenson did not mention, the efforts to dispose of mounting surpluses might well become the greatest give-away program in which the country has ever indulged. That kind of policy is particularly puzzling at a time when the Democrats are denouncing the Administration for "give-aways" in the management of the country's natural resources.

When surpluses have already accumulated as a result of past policies, it seems to be necessary to give them away or sell them at a loss in order to avoid spoilage and continuous depression of prices. But this is a very different matter from encouraging the production of more wheat, corn, cotton and other staples than the market will absorb, with the Government taking full responsibility for the excess.

It cannot be said, therefore, that Mr. Stevenson has offered a solution of the farm problem in any realistic sense of the word. Rather, he has offered to transfer the farmer's headache to the Government, with no estimate of the jolt that such a policy would inflict upon the taxpayer.

THEY DO IT AGAIN (Detroit News)

The New York Yankees have clinched another American League pennant — their seventh in eight years and twenty-second in 36 years. The familiar cry will again be heard in the land, that if competition is the life of the national pastime, as it is of trade, the Yanks had better be broken up and distributed among the poorer relations. For the pros and cons of this, see our sports pages during the winter ahead.

Meanwhile, the only comment that seems called for by this newest triumph is either marvelous-but-monotonous or ho-hum.

MIKE CONNOLLY:

Great Juliet for Balcony

Chi Suntimes Feature Ed-Hwood-Sam Goldwyn has dropped all his movie production plans for the time being to work for Ike Eisenhower's reelection. . . . There's talk of George Jessel returning to his old producer's post at 20th-Fox. He left it three years ago after a disagreement with Darryl Zanuck, then head of the studio. Buddy Adler is now running the studio during Zanuck's leave-of-absence. . . . Frances Faye's ex-mate, ex-Chicago Sam Farkas, is wooing her again. He's now working for Lockheed in Burbank. . . . Jan Whitman, Paul's daughter, got herself a bit part in Elia Kazan's "A Face in the Crowd". . . . Brooklyn's Susan Hayward has been rooting for the Brooklyn Bums while watching the World Series on her new portable TV set in her new portable dressing room at Warner Bros. . . . Tony Perkins in "Friendly Persuasion" has the same impact on the female fans that Monty Clift had when he broke loose in "Red River" — which means they drool! . . . Overheard at Ciro's: "She'd make a great Juliet, that girl. She can't act but, brother, can she lean over a balcony!"

LIBERACE HIRED a butler in London and may bring him back to the U. S. to take care of his sequined tuxes. . . . Princess Ghislaine, Grace Kelly's grandmother-in-law, used to be an actress and is straining at the bit again. Ghislaine just hired an agent to find her an acting job. . . . Universal is preparing "Lion in the Sky," based on the life of Ford's wife, Mary, that provided the premise for another movie, a great one called "A Guy Named Joe". . . . George Sanders will play the Inquisitor in Otto Preminger's movie, "Saint Joan". . . . An Italian lady is wooing Mike Wilding wildly. . . . Putnam's put on a party for writers at the Beverly Hills Hotel and one of the guests was Billie Burke, whose biography "A Feather on My Nose" was published by Putnam's. Billie amused everyone at the party with a yellowed clipping of an old photo of herself, Ellen Terry and Nazimova, from an old Christian Science Monitor. . . . Overheard, same party: "When it comes to religion, he's just an innocent bystander!"

MARGUERITE PIAZZA and husband Bill Condon, veep of the American Snuff Company of Memphis, just bought a 50-year-old home in Memphis, not far from Elvis Presley's, and are redecorating it in what Marguerite calls "Tara Moderne". . . . Patti Behrs, John Derek's ex-wife is dating Danny Arnold Joanne Gilbert's ex-husband. . . . I saw them at the Mocambo, where the star of the show, dedicated a song called "Take Your Shoes Off, Baby, and Start Running Through My Mind" to one of the ringers — the man who wrote the song, Gene Austin. . . . Jack Warner, incidentally, invited Miss Sherwood over to his studio to discuss making a movie based on her fabulous life. . . . Robert Morley says he knows a nasty old producer who's so nasty-mean he thought of reversing the charges BEFORE Alexander Graham Bell invented the telephone!

TV TOPICS—Having seen how TV mutilated Hollywood on "Wide World of Sports," Eva Marie Saint arranged for her parents to tour M-G-M. Eva Marie wants to remove the bad taste they got from watching the Dave Garraway show. . . . Joni James and Tony Acquaviva announces their engagement. . . . Dinah Shore had Patsy D'Amore cater an Italian dinner, straight from the Villa Capri stoves, in honor of Frank Sinatra, her co-star last weekend. I thought Sinatra was sensational on the show. The songs he sang with Dinah were strictly in the Carry-Me-Back-to-Old-32nd-Street tradition and his tap-terps with Dinah will never be topped. . . . Dizzy Dean, also on Dinah's show, told me, "That was the shortest hour I've ever been through. Thanks to Dinah and Frankie. They made it easy for me!" . . . I also thought Walter Winchell did a fine job with his new format. . . . Winchell, incidentally, got so excited he forgot to mention the "extras" on his show. . . . Those people sitting there looking like the jury that came in without a verdict were Darryl Zanuck and his son Dick, Harry Cohn, Jack Entratter, Joe DiMaggio, columnist's Dorothy Kilgallen and Frank Farrell, George Raft and Walter's daughter, Walda Winchell. . . . "BALLOON OWNED BY VERY POOR KID"

Mrs. Schwine's nephew, Otto, owns this balloon and he isn't really poor, just thrifty. Actually Otto recently made a killing in the Market (carrying home packages for lady shoppers) but he knows the value of a dollar (56 cents) so he leads an economical life. Otto soaks his bubble-gum overnight in sugar water and chews the same piece for four months at a time. He does without a jack-knife — he has one sharp fingernail he uses instead; and his roller skates are a second-hand, rebuilt 1954 model that have over 85,000 miles on them. And Otto's yo-yo string has been tied together so many times he has to roll it up and down by hand. I figure Otto will be the Jack Benny of 1975.

THIS SIDE of The Sun By Phat

This is being written for Wednesday, Oct. 10, on Saturday, Oct. 6. There is a reason for that early start. I want to make the deadline for Wednesday and other commitments may hamstring me unless I do it now.

I was all set to write a verse to prime this composition, as usual, but, as I say, there is Oct. 6. And Oct. 6 is National Newspaper Day.

AND YOU OUGHT to see them. There are 42 newsboys on The Desert Sun staff who see to it that you get your issue of the paper each evening — Tuesday through Saturday.

And all 42 of them are in the newsroom now. Clustered around the typewriters, testing them out, trying out the teletype and other sacred paraphernalia of a newspaper office.

So you think there'll be a verse? I started this piece and had written "THIS SIDE" for 10-10 when they descended on the office.

THE BEST WAY to get this piece of paper, it was apparent, was to put the cover on the typewriter after that one line, and walk out up the street to calm my frayed nerves.

And trust to luck. Boy, what a morning. The Desert Sun, in honor of its two score plus newsboys, had invited them to the office to see how the paper was produced. And they all accepted.

The Yanks are leading the Bums, 4 to 2, the teletype went haywire at 2 a.m., copy was late, deadlines were frowning—and 42 kids trying out all of the machinery.

Well, anyway, they learned about how the paper they deliver, is made. But I hope they don't think it's done that way every day.

THERE HAS BEEN a lot of good mail this week. Among letters received was one from Lloyd Mishlove, a local registered pharmacist.

I think he thought I was being facetious when I mentioned that this was "National Pharmacy Week, how are you fixed for blades?"

For he writes that "sure, we sell blades but that is not the reason for National Pharmacy Week."

Mr. Mishlove outlined the long and specialized training a man has to take before he can become a registered pharmacist. He also told of the painstaking care in the preparation of every prescription your doctor orders. He uses precision equipment with scientific skill. He has an intimate knowledge of the thousands of drugs and chemicals he keeps on hand.

Oct. 7-13 is being observed as National Pharmacy Week and we should take stock of the many fine contributions the nation's pharmacists are making to the American Way of Life," he concluded.

Sorry, I mentioned blades. For Mr. Mishlove is right. The pharmacist is as important as your doctor, dentist or pastor.

AND A WOMAN tells me that her husband not only shaved with an electric razor while watching the World Series on TV but also kept score with an ordinary lead pencil.

Background on Suez Crisis

By UNITED PRESS

Background on the Suez crisis: relations between the Western nations and Egypt began cooling more than a year ago when the West turned down arms supplies and Egypt turned to Soviet Russia and the Communist world.

On July 19, 1956 Secretary of State John Foster Dulles told the Egyptian ambassador in Washington the United States was withdrawing its offer of aid in building the Aswan Dam. Britain followed suit the next day. The World Bank followed on July 24.

On July 26 Egyptian President Gamal Abdel Nasser said at Alexandria the Suez Canal Company was being nationalized and that "with the revenue from the canal we shall not look to Britain and the U.S.S. . . ."

WHILE NASSER was reading out the new nationalization law, Egyptian troops took over offices of the canal, owned chiefly by the British government and French stockholders.

On July 29 Assistant Undersecretary of State Robert Murphy flew to London for emergency Big Three talks. Dulles joined the meeting July 31 and they invited 24 nations including Egypt to a Suez conference.

On July 31 Britain announced it was making "certain naval moves"—first disclosure of the eventual Anglo-French military buildup.

ON AUG. 12 NASSER said Egypt would not attend the London conference and invited all countries using the canal to another conference. He emphasized he would not discuss Egyptian control.

The first London conference opened on Aug. 15 with Egypt and Greece absent. Eighteen nations accepted Dulles' proposal for an international authority to take over operation of the canal. Australian Prime Minister Robert Gordon Menzies delivered the Dulles plan to Nasser Sept. 3. It was rejected.

On Sept. 10, with departure of the Menzies mission, Nasser suggested that all canal users form a negotiating body to reaffirm guarantees for freedom of navigation. On Sept. 11 the old Suez company authorized its non-Egyptian pilots to walk out. Within a few days the first Soviet pilots arrived.

ON SEPT. 13 the Western Big Three announced plans for a "Suez Canal Users Association" to act for the shipper nations in dealing with Egypt. Nasser rejected this.

On Sept. 20 sixteen nations that had backed the Dulles plan met in London at a second Suez conference to discuss the users association plan. The conference ended without final decisions and a third Suez conference was called for Oct. 1. Fifteen nations agreed to the plan.

On Sept. 23 Britain and France asked the U.N. Security Council to take action. Egypt followed with its request for action against Britain and France.

QUOTES

HOLLYWOOD — Attorney Saul Ross on Nora Eddington Haymes' claim that former husband singer Dick Haymes was in arrears on alimony payments: "Haymes says it cost him $100,000 to marry Rita Hayworth. We want to get to him, before it costs any more."

BROOKLYN—President Eisenhower, congratulating Dodger President Walter O'Malley on Brooklyn's World Series victory: "I wish you would tell Sal Maglie that I thought he pitched one hell of a ball game."

BROOKLYN — Dodger pitcher Don Newcombe complaining the extra day's rest caused by the World Series postponement might hamper his style: "I like to stay in a steady pitching routine and with an extra day's rest I might lose that pinpoint control."

BILL RASHALL

Unedited

Must go back to a column written about two weeks ago about dogs and the Palm Springs leash law. The reason is a letter just received from Mrs. David Fisher in which she writes about her three-year-old daughter and the departed Halye Baba "our beloved Boxer."

Mrs. Fisher, who without any shadow of a doubt holds canines in great affection, plaintively asks if people, particularly in her neighborhood out Desert Way, would refrain from putting poison in their garbage cans.

You see, Halye Baba, according to her veterinarian, turned over a garbage can or stuck his head into one in which there must have been poison.

AS A RESULT the boxer passed on causing no end of grief among the Fisher family and especially the three-year-old daughter. You see, her daughter does not understand such legal entanglements which result from allowing the dog to run free. "She and Halye Baba," writes Mrs. Fisher, "had their own method of communication. She would let him loose as regularly as she could even after innumerable reprimands."

So if you care to keep dog lovers from mental anguish and anxiety, especially when a three year old permits him to run loose, please refrain from putting poison in your garbage cans. That's all I can do Mrs. Fisher.

WINDY GRIFFITH who plans to run or is now running a pony express film developing service through the Valley, writes:

"Dear Bill: Boy, can you really swell a guy's ego. Wow I'm buried under a shower of clippings from the gentler sex and now I don't know when I'll dig out and have the nerve to show my blushing face again in Palm Springs."

My, oh My! Does Unedited do that to girls? Have to be careful from now on Windy.

THE SLENDERIZING must on the part of our fairer sex be apparently here to stay. But here in Palm Springs "that do it yourself" in order to reduce may have reached the end of popularity. If you do not believe this is true, my dear ladies, visit the newly opened Stauffer System Slenderizing Salon under management of Margaret Wyman and if she doesn't know how with all the modern Stauffer equipment then the do it yourself system or any other system will fail to make you sleek and trim.

By the way, if you want to meet a charming, personable lady who can mesmerize you with a vision of loveliness and slim and slender too, meet this Miss Wyman.

JIMMY VAN HEUSEN will be a busy man tonight with the opening of his piano bar lounge in the Desert Inn. His first entertainment attraction will be a double take deal and it will not be caused by too many with soda or water. They are the Mac Twins who are known as the "Twinsations." Identical twins, they will be playing identical pianos. So remember as the night wears on it's not that you are really seeing double. George Robins, just as busy as a little bee, is even busier than that 'cause right on the heels of the opening day the Magic convention will swarm into the hotel.

A new radio time salesman approaching a prospect asked if he was interested in buying some advertising. Just before the entrance of this gentleman of radio a rival radio station solicitor was in the process of selling time as well. The prospect on being asked if he was interested motioned to the competitor.

The new salesman started in on his pitch under the impression that the man he was talking to was really the owner of the establishment. If he doesn't know the reason why he did not make a deal he certainly will know it now. How embarrassing to reveal all one's secrets of trade to a competitor and to offer a rock bottom split cent deal. Somebody is in the process of cutting each other's throat here in Palm Springs. Right now I must say that neither of these gentlemen represented KDES.

FRANK BOGERT, colorful figure about town and manager of El Mirador Hotel, will be the high "Jedge" of Western Week during Kangaroo court time. He will make the event a most colorful one I am sure, as most of us who have heard him over a period of time know.

By the way, those Sunday brunches that were so popular at El Mirador last season start again Sunday, Oct. 21. That there boy Tex Kidwell will be on hand with that melodious voice and guitar of his. I hear too, that the Ranch Club will be serving the same kind of fodder for the persons after "church and after the ride on Sunday."

Ruby and Connie will open their establishment The Dunes Thursday. These two have been working at breakneck speed to open that excellent restaurant. And Ruby more than Connie is worn to a frazzle, as I stated before.

But razzle dazzle or what you may have, the entire town will pop open like a spring flower in May this weekend.

EARL WILSON:

Why It's Called Palm Springs

NEW YORK—Has it ever happened to you other husbands? You give your wife a lecture on economizing — and you wind up cutting down on your smoking. . . . David Wayne, just wonderful in "The Loud Red Patrick," says, "Women are all right in their place, but God forbid they should come into the home."

Mickey Mantle's so popular in the garment district that the buyers refer to him as Max Mandel.

Liz Whitney and husband Richard Lunn had a slight beef at El Morocco with Liz walking away and joining Judy Garland's table. At another bar later, Lunn complained that Liz, famous for her love of horses and dogs, "treats me like another retriever."

BOB HOPE, TALKING about how nice his sponsor'd been, said: "He even sent his car out to get me — but fortunately I jumped up on the sidewalk just in time!" . . . Jack Benny claims his violin has a simple story: "My great grandfather gave it to my grandfather, my grandfather gave it to my father, my father sold it to me" . . . Marion Marlowe's being entered in a contest for "youngest grandmother in the country." (She's qualified because her husband and Larry Puck's a grampa.)

A magician—according to Norm Hendrickson of Sacramento—"is a guy who can get a rabbit out of a hat but can't get his wife out of a bar" . . . We hear Martha Raye'll do only one free show this year; the Policeman's Ball. . . . Spotting socialite Dolly O'Brien in El Morocco, a visitor said, "Oh, I can see her in Palm Beach for nothing."

"THEY call it Palm Springs," says Ham Park, "because everywhere you go a palm springs at you" . . . Actor Rocky Graziano speaking: "Harry Truman come into my dressing room once after I'd knocked out a guy, sparrred a little with me and said, 'You wouldn'ta done that to me! You know I think President Truman would make a hell of a comic!'"

The 167-yr.-old man had to rush back, Mickey Alpert told the Lambs. His father died. . . . A gent in Wildwood, N.J., is such a lady-killer, according to George Hart, that when his wife found a loose hair on his coat, she bought him some hair tonic. . . . At the Cops, where Joe E. Lewis guzzles while clowning, a ringsider commented, "Joe E. is in a glass by himself."

Pan mail: "I would like to tell the writer who called Elvis Presley another James Dean to DROP DEAD. There will never be another Jimmie Dean!—Winnie Daly, Orange, N.J."

Down south the tale of a person who disappeared with the church funds. The congregation demanded action from the Deacons, "we're gonna make him come back here—and preach it out."

THE MIDNIGHT EARL . . . Jackie Gleason will do a "Fenwick Babbit" routine — involving water — that's so hazardous his advisors have cautioned him against it. . . . Day after Frank Costello won his citizenship case he got a note from a friendly politico: "Congratulations—Don't forget to vote!" . . . Jeanne Crain flew out to start the Joe E. Lewis movie.

Serge Rubinstein's mother—out of mourning—gave a party at the Baronet. . . . Joyce Bryant, singer-turned-church worker, is reported marrying a preacher. . . . Elvis Presley's on 11 mg covers this month—more than Monroe or Kim Novak. . . . Charles Laughton's in a brace—back injury. . . . The Gene Nelson-Piper Laurie bustup looks permanent this time. . . . Faith Domergue, Howard Hughes' discovery, was signed for a film to be made in Italy.

Joyce Mathews and Eleanor Holm—the current and ex Mrs. Billy Rose—were a table apart in the Harwyn. . . . The visiting Paris Opera Ballet whose members can't speak English—were assigned a U.S. tour manager who can't speak French.

Clark Gable will take the missus, who's recovered from her illness, on a hunting trip. . . . Ann Woodward (of the tragic Long Island killing) has her children in a Swiss school; she'll stay abroad indefinitely. . . .

EARL'S PEARLS . . . You can not fool all the people all the time—some of them are fooling you.—Maurice Seitter.

WISH I'D SAID THAT: Fred Allen said it: "A lot of people spend six days sowing wild oats, then go to church on Sunday and pray for a crop failure."

Sorority Gives Surprise Shower For Mrs. Brechlin

The first of the fall meetings of Beta Sigma Phi was held at the home of Mrs. Keith Herbert. Following the business session, which was conducted by the president, Mrs. Herbert, a program on the topic "Love's Miracle in Marriage" was presented by Mrs. Clarence Brechlin and Mrs. John Johnson. Following the meeting, during the refreshment hour, the group had arranged a surprise shower for Mrs. Brechlin. Crisp ribbioned dollar bills, tied with pink and blue bows, were tied on a branch of manzanita for a centerpiece on the refreshment table. Beneath the tree, a large stork hovered over a cradle. Mrs. Eugene Read assisted Mrs. Herbert with the hostess duties. The next meeting of the sorority will be on Tuesday, October 16, at the Rancho Mirage home of Mrs. John Noyes. All Beta Sigma Phi members in this area are cordially invited to attend.

The Blues

A "blue" era is forecast for home decorating. Blue is just about every shade from marine to turquoise showed throughout room settings at the recent national home furnishings show. One fabric designer (Dan Cooper) uses blues as the tones for the future in an array of new textures in plaids and weaves. One print fabric in blue, copper and orange is set against a sky blue wall.

Around Town

with Hildy Crawford

From north and south . . . from east and west . . . By plane and train, by boat and motor car . . . Palm Springers are heading home . . . each day sees traffic quickening along Palm Canyon Drive and parking spaces growing scarcer . . . Each night finds the lights burning in additional houses . . . and with the numerous openings this weekend . . . the Village will definitely be back in the swing . . . It's like a growing child . . . each year means lengthening the skirts and letting out the seams . . . as people come earlier and stay later . . . Loved that letter that Charlie Farrell sent to Racquet Club members saying "Last year we didn't close until after June 1st . . . We weren't trying to keep it a secret . . . people just wouldn't go home."

That's the way it is . . . Each year, what started out as a winter season . . . stretches both ways . . . overlapping into the summer . . . Actually today . . . Palm Springs has two "for sure" vacation months just like any place else . . .

El Mirador, which opens its doors tomorrow for the 1956-57 season . . . will hold its first Sunday Brunch October 21 in the Kiva Room . . . and Tex Kidwell will be there to act as emcee . . . One of the most popular events of the Winter season in Palm Springs . . . the Brunch attracts the after-church, after-Sunday-morning-ride crowds . . . Chef Gerhard Knaak will present the usual array of tempting delicacies on the buffet . . . which is one of the things that has made this Brunch such a drawing card . . .

The Edward Smalls, who were abroad this summer, are back in the Village . . . and have opened their house at 467 Via Lola . . .

Back from their trip to the Orient . . . are Hattie and Ted Charlston . . . who have been away for six weeks . . . They sailed from San Francisco on the President Wilson . . . and stopped in Honolulu, Yokohama and Tokyo . . . In Tokyo they left the ship and flew to Hong Kong, in order to have more time in that fabulous city . . . rejoining the ship when it caught up with them . . . They brought back with them many wonderful memories of the other side of the globe . . .

In the Village over the weekend were the Harry Joe Browns . . . who hosted a dinner group at the Doll House Saturday evening . . . In their party were the Eddie Silvermans (the just arrived from Chicago) and Gerri and Stuart Hopps, who were also here over the weekend . . . The Hopps have leased the Eddie LeBaron house for January, February and March . . .

Orph Frank is here to open their house and Lloyd will be joining her the first of next week . . . They were up in Oregon most of the summer . . . but spent a fortnight in San Francisco . . . and have been in La Jolla the past few weeks . . .

Win and Charlie Becker came home this weekend . . . and the big house on Avenida Palos Verdes is full of life . . . as their daughter Jackie Cole and their two grandsons came down from San Francisco . . . to say "welcome home" and spend a week with them . . .

The Beckers went up into Ontario on a fishing trip . . . after returning from abroad . . . They traveled by plane, by boat, by train, and even in a canoe when they were fishing, but Win says the most excitement . . . was when they picked up their car from storage in Los Angeles and hit that freeway traffic . . . that zooms along . . .

Also fresh from a European tour this summer . . . Marie and Ash Levy have been home since the middle of September . . . They visited nine different countries . . . flying across the borders . . . and particularly enjoyed their six week motor tour through Italy . . .

In London they encountered the Beckers and Mickey and George Wheeler . . . One of the many instances of Palm Springers meeting in foreign countries this summer . . .

Alta and George Roberson have been home a week . . . They spent their vacation time at their summer home at Balboa . . .

Merwyn Frank returned this past week . . . after a gay summer in Chicago . . . and is busy getting her house opened and lawn in . . .

The Frank Ryans are at their house on Patencia . . . and have been in and out all summer . . . spending some time in Beverly Hills and La Jolla . . .

Dinner Dances Start Saturday At Racquet Club

The doors at Charlie Farrell's popular Racquet Club will swing open again this weekend.

The opening, as always informal, will see the first dinner dance of the Club season take place Saturday evening, October 13.

In line with the Club's policy of complete operation the following evening Sunday, October 14, will see the first buffet dinner dance of the year. These delectable Sunday buffets are particularly popular with local Club members and their guests.

Teddy Noell's orchestra, which for several seasons has delighted the dinner dance throng at the Club, will provide the music for this opening weekend of Club activity.

School Children Could Eat Better

A three-state study of school children's eating habits shows they're eating well. But there's plenty of room for improvement.

The U.S. Department of Agriculture said the experiment stations in Iowa, Kansas and Ohio took a thorough look at diets of nine, 10 and 11-year-olds. They found that most school children need more calcium, ascorbic acid and vitamin A in their daily fare.

In general, the youngsters ate plenty of protein-rich and cereal foods, but needed more vitamin-rich fruits and vegetables. The studies showed differences of eating habits in different areas. The diets of Iowa children for instance, were highest in food energy value, vitamin A and ascorbic acid. Girls in Kansas received more protein than those in the other two states.

OLD FRIENDS, Mrs. Ronald Button and Mrs. Thomas Kuchel, had a chance to chat Monday, during Senator Kuchel's Palm Springs visit. Mrs. Kuchel, of course, has been in Washington, D.C. this past year, but their California home is in Anaheim. Mrs. Button, whose husband has just been appointed State Treasurer, will be dividing her time between Sacramento and Rancho Mirage. (Desert Sun Photo).

BOOKS

The healer's art from the beginning of science to modern times is the subject of Magic, Myth and Medicine (World), a polished and engaging labor of love by a doctor who writes exceedingly well. D. T. Atkinson, M.D., has collected here an account of medicine from its beginnings in magic, through ancient Greece and Rome, to the present, displaying a warm humor for the foibles of the past and a penetrating understanding of the men who achieved greatness in seeking to aid their fellows.

A book for the straight-through reading which will enrich anyone's knowledge this is also a browser's delight. Atkinson enlivens his work with anecdotes and rhymes and the human side of medicine. Of particular interest are his account of the first quarantine, the birth of psychiatry, how pirates helped advance medical knowledge, and the conquest of childbirth fever.

Church Auxiliary Starts Meetings

The Women's Auxiliary of the Cathedral City Community Church will hold its first fall meeting Thursday, October 11, at 1:45 at the Manse, 575 "D" Street.

An invitation is extended to all women to come and get acquainted with the new officers and program planned for the coming year.

Sherry Alchian Has Luncheon Birthday Party

Sherry Alchian, daughter of the Vahan Alchians of 2223 Araby Drive, celebrated her seventh birthday on Saturday with a luncheon party at the Doll House.

Pink roses decorated the birthday cake, with its legend of "Happy Birthday, Sherry," and it was a merry luncheon group that felicitated the little hostess on her birthday. After the luncheon the group attended a downtown movie.

Sherry, who is in the second grade at Cahuilla School, had as her guests Janie and Jennifer Wamsley, Debbie Hillstrand, Penny Pritchett, Noreen Slaughter, Barbara Bullock, Linda Lloyd and Shannon Corliss.

Saturday was Shannon's birthday, too, so when the other girls were served slices of birthday cake, Shannon received an individual cake topped with a lighted candle, and everyone sang the "Happy Birthday" song for her.

Since grease and oil penetrate many of the synthetic fabrics, such stains need to be pre-treated before laundering. The Cleanliness Bureau suggests rubbing the stains well with a thick soap or detergent paste or lather, letting it "work" for 10 or 15 minutes, and then laundering the garment as usual.

Another effort is being made to make New York state's Thruway even safer than it now is. When fog, rain or bad road conditions are prevalent, red signs will cover sections of the bad stretch of road, informing motorists that their speed limit must be reduced to 35 mph. The normal speed limit is 60 mph.

Coachella Valley Roadside Rest Site Suggestions to be Studied

A recommendation by the Coachella Valley Recreation Park and Parkway District that property now owned by the state be used where possible for state roadside rests so that more sites can be developed with the funds available, was received by the board of supervisors this week and referred to the Riverside County Board of Trade.

The district also recommended three roadside rest sites to be considered by the Board of Trade, which with the county planning commission is studying possible sites on which they will base a recommendation to the board of supervisors.

Dr. Ralph E. Pawley of Indio, president of the Coachella Valley Recreation Park and Parkway District, told the supervisors that the district together with the Coachella Valley Sports League has been interested in the past ten years in meeting the needs of tourists traveling through the Coachella Valley and they have developed small roadside parks with a few picnic tables and trash cans.

THE THREE SITES suggested by the district were as follows: (1) east of Palm Desert on the road abandoned when the highway was realigned and now adjacent to the new road; (2) along Highway 111 approximately 30 miles south of the first site and near the Salton Sea State Park where water would be available; (3) corner of U. S. Highways 60-70-99 and Ramon Road near Thousand Palms. Dr. Pawley said he believes water could be made available at all three sites.

New Detective Agency Planned

City Manager Robert Peterson reported to the City Council yesterday that he had received an application from Alexander J. Budsey for permission to operate a private detective agency and private patrol in the Palm Springs area.

Budsey is an ex-Palm Springs police officer who resigned his job over a year ago.

The application says that he has a state license to conduct such a business.

New Federal Date Use Plan

A new-use program to broaden the use of dates was announced this week by the U. S. Department of Agriculture.

Participants in the 1956 program will be required to give assurances that growers receive the full diversion payment of four cents per pound. The payments will be made from Section 32 (customers receipts) funds authorized for this purpose by the Congress.

Under the Federal Marketing Order for Dates, approximately eight million pounds from the 1956 crop will be set aside by handlers for use in other than whole or pitted form. The dates withheld will be eligible for manufacture into new date products.

Under a similar program last year, applications were approved for the diversion of 8.6 million pounds into products such as date pieces, date crunchies, and date sugar. These are used in bakery, confectionary, and ice cream products.

Details of the 1956 program, including eligible products and conditions of participation will be announced soon.

Palm Desert By GRETCHEN CHEESEMAN

P. S. Omohundro, president of the G. and E. Tool Co. in Los Angeles, has purchased the Nash Ranch and will live in Palm Desert.

Michel's Pastry Shop has opened in the Center this week. George and Edith Michel and their young son will operate the new shop. It will be a complete bakery, featuring Danish and French pastries, and there will also be a catering service.

Mrs. Stanley Ring received the sad news last week that her stepfather, William Worth, had died. He lived on Long Island and Mrs. Ring visited her family in June and Mr. Worth seemed in perfect health at that time.

Mrs. June Crocker has returned to the desert and has opened her Sun Lodge. She was away all summer on a Mediterranean cruise, and will leave again in January on a cruise to the Orient.

Mr. and Mrs. Andrew Moseley spent the weekend in their home on Ironwood Street.

Lou Kuehner, recreational and program director of Shadow Mountain Club returned last week to assume his winter program. His sister, Miss Marie Kuehner spent the weekend with him.

Everyone who dines at Shadow Mountain Club will be interested to know that Frank Constant, "Maitre d'" is back in the Shadow Room after an absence of many months.

Mrs. Refa Deaton returned last Tuesday after a vacation of two months spent in far-away places. She did a great deal of hunting and fishing, and is well known as a big game hunter and deep sea fisherman.

The Palm Desert Woman's Club will open its fall season, Thursday, Oct. 18, with a luncheon meeting at the Shadow Mountain Club. Elizabeth Talbot-Martin, well known satirical monologist, will present the program.

Pat and Helen Ritchie, owners and managers of the Desert Patch will open ten new units very soon. They also have added a lounge room, where guests may gather and get acquainted. One side of this room is covered with a huge world map—and will prove to be a "conversation piece."

Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Blenkhorn of Santa Monica arrived here Saturday and will be living at Esquire apartments for the month. Mrs. Blenkhorn will make a few quick trips home to attend to family affairs.

Jail Rampage

BECKLEY, W. Va., (AP)—Rampage, a form of wild onion with an especially penetrating odor, created a rampage in the Raleigh County Jail here. A visitor left some with an inmate, who devoured them with great gusto, despite moans from other prisoners. Said an official of the jail, "I guess there's no better place to eat ramps than in jail."

New City Sign Law Now 50 Per Cent Completed

A meeting between the City Council and administrative officers of the city "to go over the proposed sign ordinance" ended only fifty per cent completed Tuesday night, with a motion made and passed to complete the special meeting next Monday night.

Administrative assistant Richard DeLong said that the two bodies were meeting to go over the proposed sign ordinance step by step. Members of the council have commented in the past that if there is to be a good sign ordinance, that it must include all particulars dealing with the display and usage of signs in the Village.

When the new law is passed by the council it will be a completely new law, incorporating parts of the law now in force and expanding on new provisions.

Census Bureau To Obtain Facts On Enrollment

Questions on school enrollment will be asked in addition to the regular inquiries on employment and unemployment in the October Current Population Survey, according to Regional Supervisor, Leonard C. Isley of the Census Bureau's field office at Los Angeles, which will participate in the survey.

Similar questions on school attendance last year revealed that about seven million more persons, 5 to 29 years old, were enrolled in school or college in October 1955 than in October 1950. About 37.2 million persons 5 to 29 years old were enrolled at the beginning of the 1955-56 school year. This number represented a 23 per cent gain over the 30.2 million enrolled five years earlier.

The current Population Survey will be taken locally and in 329 other areas of the country during the week of Oct. 15. Information will be collected locally by the resident enumerator.

NEW SUPREME COURT JUSTICE

SUCCESSING TO SEAT of Associate Justice Sherman Minton October 15, Judge William J. Brennan, Jr., has been appointed to United States Supreme Court by President Eisenhower. ## Eisenhower Appointment of Brennan Hailed by Top Political Strategists

WASHINGTON (AP) — Not the least of the general applause which continues to greet President Eisenhower's latest Supreme Court choice comes from Republican political strategists.

Mr. Eisenhower long since ceased to be a political amateur. He got his master's ticket some time ago. If he hadn't got it already, surely it would issue with the selection of William Joseph Brennan, Jr., to succeed associate Justice Sherman Minton, resigned, on Monday.

William Joseph Brennan, Jr., is precisely the man for whom Mr. Eisenhower was looking—youth, good lawyer with both trial and bench experience with an outstanding record as a judge. Justice Brennan, however, has other qualifications which are peculiarly important this year. He's a New Jersey Democrat of Irish blood and a member of the Roman Catholic Church.

MR. EISENHOWER is right now engaged in urging Democrats who voted for him in 1952 to repeat this year. If they failed to do so in sufficient numbers, Mr. Eisenhower almost surely will be defeated in his reelection bid. Mr. Eisenhower bears down hard on the idea that he is less partisan than some and, especially, that he is the president of all the people, not just a party president.

The choice of Brennan, in view of the foregoing, could be the most significant political selection for high office that Mr. Eisenhower has made or ever will. It is likely to win or hold some Democratic and Catholic votes for Mr. Eisenhower and, in a very close election, a few votes here or there makes the difference between victory and defeat.

The President has been considerably mauled by the opposition on charges of leading his cabinet with and for big business but in many other appointive areas Mr. Eisenhower has made political medicine for himself and the Republican party with his picks.

HE DRAFTED THE Senate dean, Walter F. George of Georgia, as his personal representative to the North Atlantic Treaty Organization. The draft came at a time when Congressional Democrats were beginning to object to United States subsidy of foreign armaments.

Mr. Eisenhower chose Sen. Hubert Humphrey (D-Minn.) and Sen. William F. Knowland (R-Calif.) to be among the U. S. representatives to the United Nations Assembly. They have been active critics of administration foreign policy. All such are right out of FDR's manual of political performance.

So are the President's easy news conference manners and his awareness that to love golf is okay, but a President is supposed to go to a ball game occasionally, too. It is not enough merely to love the voters. A good politician also loves the voters' sports if he can make himself do it.

MR. EISENHOWER does all of these things. It cannot be said that he excels in the sense of topping FDR. Who but the late Mr. Roosevelt would have thought in a campaign year of stuffing a couple of top drawer Republicans into his cabinet. That was 1940, and they were the late Henry Stimson and the late Frank Knox. Who but FDR would have thought of kidnapping the Republican presidential nominee after defeating him. That was in 1940, also, and the man was Wendell L. Wilkie, who became Mr. Roosevelt's roving world ambassador.

Harry S. Truman was no slouch. Mr. Truman had a Supreme Court vacancy to fill in 1945 and found best fitted for it a former Senate colleague, Associate Justice Harold Hitz Burton of Ohio, a Republican. The governor of Ohio was a Democrat who promptly put a Democrat in Republican Burton's Senate seat. It was a good deal for everyone except the Republican party.

6,000,000 Go On 2-Week Beer and Chicken Binge

MUNICH, Germany (AP) — This year's "Oktoberfest," the annual Bavarian beer binge, broke all kinds of records, officials said today.

More than six million persons attended the two-week celebration, which ended Monday, and drank nearly 1,000,000 gallons of beer and ate 230,000 chickens. They stole 20,000 beer mugs and lost 140 children, including one 14 days old. There were 5 major brawls and more than 300 persons were taken into temporary custody for fighting.

County Okehs Boat Purchase

The County supervisors appropriated $1,000 this week for purchase of a new boat for the sheriff's office at Blythe to be used on the Colorado River. Sheriff Joe Rice told the supervisors Sept. 17 that the present eight-year-old boat is hazardous for use in rescue operations on the river. At that time the board asked Supervisor Berkey to look into the matter.

Berkey said that in addition to its use for rescue work and hunting for dead bodies, the boat is used for law enforcement work such as apprehending people shooting from boats at cattle and at birds, and running down other boat riding lawbreakers.

The sheriff has been asked to patrol the river Oct. 14 and 15 when the Chambers of Commerce of Blythe and Yuma will have their annual river cruise. It is hoped that the new boat will be in the river in time for the event.

Thomas Jefferson was among the early American wine growers. He cultivated grapes at Monticello.

Dutton Tries Again for Idyllwild Liquor License, Gets Second Turndown From County Supervisors

Refused by the State Alcoholic Beverage Control Board an application for an off-sale beer and wine license for Dutton's Corner Store at Fern Valley in the Idyllwild area, the Duttons have now filed an application for such a license for their Village Store which is located in the village which is the heart of the mountain resort.

The county supervisors listened to a plea by Leigh Dutton to give a stamp of approval to his application rather than to adopt a resolution urging its denial by the state control board, but to no avail. They instructed county counsel to prepare a resolution opposing the granting of the license for the Village Store just as they had done for the Corner Store.

DUTTON CLAIMED that because failure to get the liquor license for his market at Fern Valley he has closed the store permanently. He said no grocery store at Idyllwild has been able to make a profit because of the short three-month season, that the profit to be made from the sale of beer and wine would make considerable difference.

Idyllwild is unique in that it has neither agriculture nor industry.

Dutton told the supervisors. It depends on tourists for a livelihood.

"This board has seen fit to follow the dictates of so-called religious camp groups," said Dutton . . . "I ask you what have these camps done for Idyllwild and Riverside County? The majority of them are out-of-county organizations . . . They receive without cost county and district services . . . the benefit of good county government without paying one dime for it."

"IN RETURN WHAT do they do for Idyllwild and Riverside County?" asked Dutton. "The majority bring in their staffs and supplies . . . They do not even bank their monies in Riverside county banks . . . They endeavor to enforce their wishes on the citizens and business of Idyllwild."

"Most of us in business in Idyllwild feel that Mr. McCall would do better to protect the voters and taxpayers in Idyllwild from the unsupervised horde of shoplifting hoodlums turned loose on our community each summer by these camps," declared Dutton. "The Idyllwild business community which pays the bills through taxation should be governed according to its wishes. We must support ourselves twelve months a year. These campers use the mountain two or three months a year."

"IF A POLICE problem is your worry at Idyllwild you have it now," continued Dutton. "Real traffic problems are posed by smart teenage campers blocking roads and bombarding motorists. Disregard for private property by camp groups and their counselors should be stopped."

"Sheriff Joe Rice has stated that our application and licensing would be no more a police problem than a grocery store in Riverside county," said Dutton. "The person who takes a six-pak of beer home from the grocery store is not the one to cause the police problems now existing in Idyllwild caused by these unsupervised children."

TODAY'S SPORTS PARADE

By OSCAR FRALEY
United Press Sports Writer
Reg. U.S. Pat. Off.

BROOKLYN, N. Y., Oct. 9 — Big Don Newcombe gets his chance today to erase that "choke up" label forever by winning the biggest game of his career.

It will be the 30-year-old Newcombe on the mound for the Brooklyn Dodgers in the seventh and final game of the World Series. And if he beats those contemptuous New York Yankees to give Brooklyn its second straight world championship, then all in the past will be forgiven.

Maybe not all, because big Don still is on the hook with the law for betting — he says pushing — a sneering fan after he was bombed out by the Yankees in the second game of the Series last week.

BUT EVEN THAT difficulty will pale it—after being shelled four times by the Yankees in the annual baseball classic — he finally turns them back.

"I want this game more than I've ever wanted anything in my life," the six-foot, four-inch 225-pounder said softly as the Dodgers celebrated their get-even victory Tuesday, over bullet Bob Turley. "This is it, and I've got to have it."

Big Newk hates that "choke-up" tag with a bitter passion. Many of those 27 games he won to help the Dodgers to the National League pennant this season were, he thinks, "big ones."

But he doesn't deny that in the breath-taking National League stretch drive, a toe-to-toe slugger match with the Milwaukee Braves he lost one game and needed help in three others. Or that, written accusingly in the World Series record books, is proof that those Yankees have beaten him three times and knocked him out a fourth.

BACK IN 1949, Newk lost a 1-0 heart-breaker when Tommy Henrich touched him for a ninth-inning homer. In his second start that year he lasted less than four innings. Last year, the Yankees racked him for eight hits as he lost the opener by failing to last five innings. Then he came down with a sore elbow and never got another chance.

Last Friday he took another shot at "the big one"—and it was the same old story.

Big Newk lasted only one and two-thirds innings when the Yanks jumped on him for six hits and six runs. Brooklyn fought back to win the game but by then Newcombe had left the ball park and wound up in a police station for the brush with his parking lot tormentor.

This time, he knows, there will be no escape if he pitches poorly. This time he has to win to keep those whispers from growing into shouts.

Webb Rated 2-1 Over Cotton in TV Bout Tonight

CHICAGO, Oct. 9 — Middleweight Spiker Webb, meets an old sparring partner for the "Nth" time tonight, but this one will be for prize money on television from the Chicago Stadium.

Webb, a 25-year-old Army veteran aiming for his 15th straight win, was a 2½ to 1 favorite to whip Charlie Cotton, also 25, from Toledo, O., who has won 41 of 53 pro fights.

"It's funny," Webb said. "When I first came to Chicago, Cotton and I sparred a lot. Worked out together in the gym every day. He hasn't changed at all since then. I've seen him fight a couple of times and he's a very very good fighter."

Webb believed he would be at his best for the bout, at about 156½ pounds with the speed he had for his last outing, a decision over previously unbeaten Rory Calhoun. The former Olympic and collegiate boxer star believed he would have to be at his best to win over Cotton.

"He's a smart fighter," Webb said. "One of the smartest that I've fought up to now. He was fighting long before I ever thought about it, and as far back as 1949, he was rated among the welterweights."

Cotton believes that he had the pattern to beat this old gym-mate. "You need speed and a punch," he said, "and I think I've got them both."

Slaughter Top Candidate as Series Goat

Yank's Hero Until Tuesday Now on Spot

Debate Over Play In Sixth Game of Series Is Now On

BROOKLYN, N. Y., Oct. 9 — Enos Slaughter, one of the greatest clutch players in baseball history, is on the spot today as a possible 1956 World Series goat.

Did the 39-year-old New York Yankees outfielder misplay three balls, including Jackie Robinson's game-winning, 10th-inning single in Tuesday's 1-0 Brooklyn Dodger triumph? Or did circumstances just happen to make Enos look bad?

The question probably will be debated as long as World Series are talked about without anyone arriving at a conclusive decision. But it's quite likely that, of all the games old Enos has played, he'll least like to recall the sixth game of the 1956 World Series.

THE YANKEES' sentimental hero of the series ran into trouble early when Junior Gilliam lifted a routine fly to left field with one out in the third inning. Enos loomed under the ball, then lost it in the sun, and let it drop for a single. Gilliam tried for two and the alert Slaughter grabbed the ball and threw to Billy Martin for the putout.

Ill-luck again came Enos' way in the eighth inning of the tense struggle when pitcher Clem Labine lifted a high fly close to the left field foul line. At first, it seemed the ball might go all the way for a home run but it fell short close to a protruding section of the stands but still inside the foul line.

SLAUGHTER RACED OVER to take the ball but stopped about five feet short of the protruding fence. The ball dropped for a double.

And then, of course, there was some question whether Enos should have caught Jackie Robinson's game-winning liner in the 10th. At first, it appeared the ball would be caught and then, suddenly, it was over Enos' head and off the wall and Junior Gilliam was streaking over the plate.

Coach Kazmire Of Jayvees Has Strong Squad

Coach Alfred Kazmire of the Palm Springs High School Junior Varsity football team was confident today that his 1956 squad will make an excellent showing in its Riverside County League schedule.

Many of last year's lettermen are back on the scene and Kazmire believes they have an excellent chance in their first league game Thursday night when they meet Elsinore High's Jayvees on the local gridiron starting at 6 o'clock.

Among those returning from last year's squad are Pug Mayfield, Don Burke, Gary Eastin, Joe Henderson, J. Dunham, Jeff Liley and Bob Bigelow.

Kazmire expects a lot of action out of these gridirers. "The boys themselves are full of pep and confidence and say they'll go after a flawless season," he said.

Coach Kazmire was once varsity coach at Elsinore and is out to defeat his former pals from there.

No admission will be charged to Thursday night's game on the local gridiron.

"My Best," Labine's View of Big Victory

BROOKLYN, Oct. 9 — Clem Labine was emphatic that beating the Yankees in Tuesday's Series game was the "biggest belt I ever got out of anything in baseball."

Labine said he thought he pitched "at least as well" as he did in his other famous shutout, 10-0, over the New York Giants in the second game of the 1951 National League pennant playoff. "Although I believe I had a better sinker pitch in '51 than I do now."

144 Tee Off Today In Women's Tourney

PEBBLE BEACH, Oct. 9 — A field of 144 tee off in match play today in the 26th annual Trans-Mississippi Women's Golf Tournament at Monterey Peninsula Country Club.

Wilkie Smith, 19-year-old star from Orange, Tex., shot a one-over par 74 yesterday to win medalist honors in the second day of qualifying rounds.

SYDNEY, Australia, Oct. 9 — Olympic teams from nine nations may be reduced because sufficient aircraft could not be chartered, a representative of Qantas Airways said Tuesday night. The nations affected are Greece, Japan, Nationalist China, Israel, Ethiopia, India, Korea and Lebanon.

RATED A PRIME prospect for Gonzaga University's 1956-57 basketball team, Charley Jordan, shown at right as freshmen checked in, is the tallest of the new players at 6-6. ## Arnett Now Top Ground Gainer in Coast Statistics

LOS ANGELES, Oct. 9 — All-American halfback Jon Arnett of the University of Southern California has taken over the rushing lead in the Pacific Coast Conference from his teammate, fullback C. R. Roberts, the PCC commissioner's office revealed today.

Arnett has gained 351 yards rushing and averaged 6.8 yards a carry in his first three games to surpass Roberts' 312. Charles Morrill of Washington State and Jack Morris of Oregon each have 224.

In total offense, however, Stanford's John Brodie leads with 541 yards. Brodie gained all but six yards of the total from passes which have been responsible for scoring five touchdowns. Arnett ranks second in total offense with 475 yards and Swinton Aldrich of Washington State follows with 385.

BRODIE HAS COMPLETED 43 of 78 passes. Norm Becker of California leads in pass receptions with 15 for 193 yards. Jack Brown of Oregon tops pass interceptions with two.

Arnett, the 1955 All American, leads in scoring with 29 points while Dean Derby of Washington has 19.

Washington State has boomed to the lead in total team offense. The Cougars have gained 1,342 yards in three games for a 447.3 yard average a game. Washington ranks second with a 413.3 yard average a game and Southern California has 368.7.

WASHINGTON STATE took over the lead on its passing attack which has averaged 263.3 yards a game. Stanford has recorded 217 yards in passing and California 163.

The Washington Huskies head the total rushing statistics with a 327 yard average. Southern California was second with 284 and Oregon third with 264.3 yards a game.

In total defense, Oregon has allowed only 183.7 yards to be chalked up against it, followed by UCLA with 223.7 and California with 280.7.

MELBOURNE, Australia, Oct. 9 — John Landy Australia's great miler, announced today he would not participate in Australia's Olympic trials Saturday because of a strained ankle tendon.

"Unless my strained ankle tendons mend within a month I'll be unlikely to compete in the Olympic Games," he said.

Flowers Placed on Colt's Waiver List

BALTIMORE, Md., Oct. 9 — Rookie end Bernie Flowers, who according to Coach Webb Ewbank "hasn't come around as completely as expected," has been placed on waivers by the Baltimore Colts. The cutting of the former Purdue star left the Colts' roster at the legal limit of 33.

ARCADIA, Oct. 9 — C. V. Whitney's Career Boy and Fisherman probably will be among a string of thoroughbreds representing the noted turfman at a Santa Anita Park meeting which opens Dec. 26.

Track officials disclosed Tuesday that Whitney would bring a string of thoroughbreds to the meeting. The turfman last was represented at the track in 1952.

FOOTBALL WILL TAKE OVER NATIONAL SPORTS SCENE AFTER TODAY'S GAME

By JOE SARGIS
United Press Sports Writer

NEW YORK, Oct. 9 — After baseball fans get their last chance to "hoot and holler" today, college football, which actually has been with us for the past two weeks, in case you hadn't noticed, takes over the national sports scene for the better part of the next seven weeks.

No less than eight major games on Saturday's program are rated "even" by the men who make the odds, while three other games involving the nation's top three ranked teams—Oklahoma, Michigan State and Texas—Christian—are rated "out."

THE GAMES in which the odds-makers were reluctant to separate the opponents by even a single point involve Dartmouth-Brown, Southern Methodist-Duke, Rice-Florida, Georgia-North Carolina, Oklahoma A&M-Tulsa, Iowa State-Kansas, Oregon State-California and Kentucky-Auburn.

If you're among the betting gentry, you can get 3 points if you think Tulane can beat Navy and the same spread if you like Wisconsin over Iowa. In the 19 other games for which odds are listed the spread runs from Syracuse by 6 over West Virginia all the way to Michigan State by a whopping 25 over Indiana in a Big Ten game.

Robinson Describes Low Ball That Let Him Hit That Winning Wallop

Editors Note: Jackie Robinson's 10th inning single drove in the run that gave the Dodgers a 1-0 victory over the Yankees today and tied the World Series at three games apiece. In the following dispatch, he tells how he did it.

By JACKIE ROBINSON
As Told To The United Press

BROOKLYN, Oct. 9 — I had three chances with men on base Tuesday and I figured I had to come through at least once.

Bob Turley kept throwing me fast balls all day. He kept them high, too, until the 10th. Then he got one a little down and that's the one I jumped on.

When I saw the ball start out to left field I kept hoping it would sink I felt it didn't. Enos Slaughter was bound to grab it for just another out. But the next time I looked I saw the ball going over his head. I could see Junior Gilliam coming in with the winning

Pros Unable to Agree on What it Takes to Win Open

SAN FRANCISCO, Oct. 9 — The scenes and the names change on the professional golf tour—but the yakity-yak remains the same.

The top money makers among the nation's professionals are here today warming up for the start Thursday of the 53rd Western Open Golf Championship.

The scene this time is the Presidio Golf Club course — built right on the U. S. Army post by the same name in the center of San Francisco. It is a short course, measuring 6,495 yards, with the biggest hazards occasional winds and regular fogs. The usual questions asked the pro stars is this: "What score will it take to win this tournament?"

"The professionals will murder this course," says Marvin Bud Ward, former U. S. National Amateur Champion and now a top professional. "The roughs are too easy, the holes short. A score of 276 or better will be necessary to win it."

Par is 72 and for 72 holes it would be 288. "It's a real tough course," says E. J. Dutch Harrison, who has been around longer than any of the other touring professionals.

use by 6 over West Virginia all the way to Michigan State by a whopping 25 over Indiana in a Big Ten game.

Listed as 7 point favorites are Princeton over Pennsylvania, Michigan over Army, Ohio State over Illinois in the Midwest's regionally telecast game, Notre Dame over Purdue, Clemson over Wake Forest, Baylor over Arkansas, Washington over Oregon, and Texas A&M over Houston.

The win was by a net score of four goals. Members of the Desert Air squad, which will return to Long Beach for another match this coming weekend, are Bill Mayberry, Lisle Nixon, Ken Walker and Bill Allen. ## Titoism Spreading Rapidly in Europe, Russia's Grip on Satellites Slipping

By CHARLES M. McCANN
United Press Staff Correspondence
Titoism seems to be spreading rapidly in Communist parties throughout Europe.
Developments within the last few days indicate that Soviet Russia's grip on its Iron Curtain satellites is loosening materially.
Correspondingly, President Tito of Yugoslavia seems to be emerging more clearly every day as a real power in the Communist world.

It is questionable whether the Russian Communists will be able to stop the trend toward Titoism.
Communist Hungary announced last Friday that there will be "certain changes" in United States-Hungarian relations soon.
An official spokesman said the aim is to improve relations by considering complaints of the American embassy and by easing travel restrictions.

Communist Romania announced Sunday that negotiations will be started next Monday in Bucharest to improve relations with the United States.
These two developments may not be connected with the Titoist trend. But they could be.

TITO STARTED IT all in 1948 when he successfully defied Soviet dictator Joseph Stalin, and declared his independence.
The Russians now admit that Tito was justified. They even encourage closer relations between the satellite leaders and Tito. However, they want to keep the brakes on. But Tito is an ambitious man. He seems to see himself more and more as the coming Communist leader of Southeastern Europe.

Tito had no sooner returned home last Friday from his policy talks in Russia than it became clear that there is going to be a Communist pilgrimage to Belgrade, his capital, to see him.

DELEGATIONS FROM Communist Bulgaria and from Italy, which has the largest Communist Party outside the Iron Curtain, are in Belgrade now.

A Hungarian Communist government delegation is due in Belgrade next Monday.

French and Polish Communist delegations are due there later this month.

Premier Otto Grotewohl of Communist East Germany, who has slavishly followed the Moscow line said in a speech in East Berlin

Police Aid Asked In Surveying Air Field in Japan

SUNAKAWA, Japan (AP)—Japanese government surveyors today appealed for police protection against more than 2,000 leftist-led demonstrators who have held up survey for expansion of an American air base near this tiny farming village for six days.

But police refused, saying they would not interfere unless the demonstrators use force to obstruct the survey.

The demonstrators, who include labor union members, students and some villagers, have tied up operations by forming human barricades. There has been no violence thus far.

Planned extension of the runway at Tachikawa Air Base near Tokyo would cut into the village's farming area.

Texas on Tour

COLORADO SPRINGS, (AP)—Texans boast about Texas, but they visit Colorado. More Texas than Colorado cars made the trip up the Pike's Peak highway near here during the month of July. There were 2,305 Texas cars counted on the road, compared with 2,109 Colorado vehicles.

Sub-Chairmen Appointed for Odlum Campaign

Campaign division chairman for the Palm Springs committee working in behalf of Jacqueline Cochran Odlum, candidate for the U. S. Congress at the November 6 general election, was announced today by Arnold Rumwell, general chairman for the desert resort committee; Mrs. Milton M. Portis, vice-chairman; and Mrs. Barbara C. Coffman, chairman of the women's campaign volunteers.

William Velth, has volunteered to serve as chairman of the Democrats for Jacqueline Cochran Odlum for Congress group; Stanley Rosin will head up the business men's committee and Earl Coffman will serve as chairman of the finance committee.

Chairman of the labor committee will be Rudy Salazar, Dr. F. A. Purcell will head the professions committee, and Al Hoover is chairman of the Veterans committee for Jacqueline Cochran Odlum's congressional campaign.

Chairman Rumwell stated he was pleased that such an outstanding group of Palm Springs citizens had agreed to volunteer their time and services in behalf of the candidacy of Jacqueline Cochran Odlum. They were convinced, he said, that she was the candidate who could best serve the 29th District in the U. S. Congress.

Hitchhiker

HOLLAND, Mich. — Art Sas drove his foreign-made sports car several miles before he stopped to check the strange sounds coming from under the hood. A cat was lying inside next to the motor.

THE "MODERN FORMAL" styling of the Continental Mark II, Ford Motor Company's prestige car, is based on functional use of chrome, metal and glass to achieve an air of simplicity and elegance. The hood is almost one-third the over-all length of 18 feet, and the long, low appearance is accentuated by the height of only 4 feet, 8 inches, which is the lowest of any American production car with a front and rear seat. The 1957 version of the Continental which retains the distinctive styling features of the car, is on display at Palm Springs Lincoln-Mercury.

Harry Cannon Fights Thermal Airport Eviction Order

The County supervisors referred to county counsel a letter received Monday from Harry B. Cannon, Palm Desert attorney, in behalf of his client, H. O. Rind, whose contract with the county as operator of the Thermal Airport was ordered cancelled by the supervisors August 27.

The cancellation was made at the request of J. S. Marriott, county airport director, who said Rind's services have been increasingly unsatisfactory over a period of months and he has failed to fulfill or observe several conditions of his lease agreement.

Cannon advised the board that Rind emphatically denies that he has defaulted in any of the covenants contained in the lease agreement. "We feel the County of Riverside is attempting to terminate the lease without justification and it is our intention and right to resist," said Cannon.

Rind was ordered by the board August 27 to surrender the premises not later than Sept. 30, 1956. Cannon said the order was not received by Rind until "on or about the sixth day of September."

Vegetable Advice

GENEVA, N. Y. — Scientists at the Agricultural Experiment Station here say that "off flavor" can develop in two to three weeks in frozen vegetables that are not adequately blanched prior to freezing.

Blythe Airport Ceremony Set

The county airport commission and Bonanza Airlines are planning a ceremony at the Blythe airport the latter part of October. Airport Director J. S. Marriott told the supervisors this week, after Bonanza moves into the new airline passenger building.

Berkey Seeks Law to Stop Road Litter

Supervisor George Berkey said this week that he had received a complaint from a man who said his neighbor dumps trash on the vacant lot next to his property and when he had asked the sheriff to do something about it the sheriff had replied that unless the man dumped garbage nothing could be done about it. He said further that the sheriff's statement had been backed by county counsel.

Berkey said it is his opinion that there should be a tie-in of anti-litter control and dumping laws, and at his suggestion the board asked county counsel and the Board of Trade to study the situation and recommend to the board as to how the law can be strengthened to control dumping and roadside litter.

Texas Parks

AUSTIN, Tex. — Three Texas cities are now appropriating more than $1,000,000 annually for parks and city recreation services. Dallas heads the list with an appropriation of $2,132,449. Houston has an appropriation of $1,304,897 and Fort Worth is listed for $1,164,734.

Extra Fair Help Authorization Given Manager

Personnel director Donald E. Spencer told county supervisors this week that due to the multiplicity of functions to be performed by extra help employed for the county fair and date festival in Indio, and the urgency of employing people when they are needed, he believes it would be inadvisable to require such employees to comply with the county employee classification plan.

In compliance with Spencer's recommendation, the board authorized Fair Manager Bob Fullenwider to employ extra help for the fair operation on the basis of what appears to be in his best judgment the prevailing rate in the area for the type of work to be performed at the time the employee is needed.

Recognition Now

SALISBURY, Mass. — Folks here don't believe in waiting until a man dies before paying him honors. They inserted an article in the March 17 town warrant for the voters to ballot on installing a tablet in Memorial School to recognize the many years of service given the school and health departments by Dr. William L. Coleman of nearby Seabrook, N. H.

Carnation corner

This is the time of year when I'm most thankful for Carnation Cottage Cheese. You see, I'm so busy I just haven't time to fuss with meals. But, with versatile Carnation Cottage Cheese on hand, it's easy to keep my family menus nourishing and delicious as well as quick-to-fix.

Only Carnation could make it so good!

Carnation, you know, is the Cottage Cheese that tastes wonderful just "as is"—straight from the carton. Naturally, it blends better with other foods, too. It's especially good in this time-saving Green and Gold Salad. (You can make it ahead of time and, for the average size family, there's usually enough for both dinner and lunch the next day.)

Green + Gold Fruit Salad
(Makes 8-10 servings)

1 cup well-drained canned pineapple tidbits
2 cups hot water (or pineapple syrup and water)
1 package lime flavored gelatin
1/2 cup finely sliced dates
1/2 cup chopped nuts
1/4 cup quartered maraschino cherries
2 tablespoons lemon juice
1 cup (1/2 pint) CARNATION COTTAGE CHEESE

Drain pineapple, save syrup. Heat syrup and water to boiling. Dissolve gelatin in hot syrup. Chill until thickened and syrupy (20-25 minutes). Add remaining ingredients. Blend well; pour into 1 1/2 quart mold. Chill 2-3 hours or until firm.

Carnation Cottage Cheese adds so much real food value to meals, too. Ounce for ounce, it contains as much protein as choice, lean meat. Yet, it's so low in calories.

Dig this Crazy Mixed up Milk

The origin of cheese goes back into antiquity. Historians believe it was developed shortly after the domestication of the cow (around 9000 B.C.). Arabians probably took canteens of milk along on their desert travels. Chances are that the constant motion of the camels caused the milk to form curds and became the world's first cottage cheese.

In addition to its rich store of protein, Carnation Cottage Cheese also contains calcium, phosphorus and Vitamin A. Few other foods supply so much nourishment for so little cost. Enjoy Carnation Cottage Cheese often.
